

FEA President's Award History

The President's Award was initiated in 2003. The intent is to provide recognition to the individual or individuals for their outstanding dedication and service to the members of FEA. The award winners are as follows:

- 2003 – Margo McConnell and Brad Penner for efforts in creating the CES® Program (Dan McCabe).
- 2004 - Ralph Bunje (Diane Holtzgraf)
- 2005 – Diane Holtzgraf (Pat Dowdall)
- 2006 - To all members who either contributed financially or showed up for the IRS hearing to fight proposed regulation 468B. (Dennis Helmick)
- 2007 - Dave Brown for his efforts on the FDA/farm issues (Hugh Pollard)
- 2008 -Suzanne Baker for her work on our federal legislative and regulatory issues (Mary Foster)
- 2009 - Brent Abraham for his work on our state legislative and regulatory issues (Hugh Pollard)
- 2010 – Bill Horan for his work behind the scenes and in many areas of the association (David Gorenberg)
- 2011 – Dave Franasiak, Williams & Jensen for their lobbying work. (Brent Abraham)
- 2012 – Kelly Pearl, CES® for extraordinary work on the CES® Council and the FEA Board, overall contributions to the organization. (Suzanne Goldstein Baker)
- 2013 – To all members who gave an additional membership contribution for the increase in costs needed to fight to save the 1031 industry. (Dave Brown)
- 2014 – Mary Cunningham, CES® for her work legislatively, and on conferences. (Bill Horan)
- 2015 – Lucas Ecklund-Baker, for his work on all of the FEA newsletter, issues website, GAC newsletters/alerts (Mary Cunningham)
- 2016 – Brent Abraham, Suzanne Goldstein-Baker, Dave Brown, Mary Cunningham, Max Hansen, William Horan, Lucas Ecklund-Baker, John Wunderlich, Dave Franasiak for their GAC work and DC trips on behalf of FEA (Margo McDonnell)
- 2017 – Eric Brecher, for his work on the annual conference and growing the sponsorship program. (Steve Chacon)